

LITERARY SOCIETY

The students of the Edmonton high school held their regular literary society yesterday afternoon. Mrs. R. T. Bishop, who was visiting the school during the afternoon, was present.

Florence Inglis, the president of the literary society, occupied the chair. The secretary, Clarence Umbach, was in his usual place. Donald Ross addressed the society, advocating the publishing of a school paper. His remarks were received with approval, and on motion by Donald Ross, seconded by Ed. Walker, it was unanimously decided to publish a paper. Anna Oliver was appointed editor.

Nominations were then received for the position of counselor made vacant by the absence of Miss Walker. The following were suggested, Miss Wade, Miss Sinclair and Fred Peters. The election will be held at a subsequent meeting of the society.

The program was then proceeded with. The president briefly addressed the society, after which Mr. R. H. Johnston gave a mandolin solo which was very much appreciated. W. Rea, principal of the high school, gave an address on the value of a literary society. In commencing, he referred to the difficulties to be encountered in starting a literary society in a comparatively small school, but assured the students that the teachers would aid them in their efforts to make the Edmonton high school literary society a great success. Mr. Gibson gave a very humorous recitation entitled The Quickest Sermon. The next item on the program was a debate on this subject, "Resolved that an increase in the present tariff would be in the interests of Canada." The affirmative side was championed by Fred Peters and H. Brag, while the negative side was ably upheld by A. McNulty and E. Mitchell. The different speeches were all good and to the point.

R. H. Johnston, gave the critic's report, commenting favorably on the different numbers on the program. He congratulated the debaters on their efforts in dealing with such a controversial subject.

Mr. Ellis then gave his judgment on the debate, outlining the methods of arriving at his decision. The manner of delivering his often more weight than the number of points enumerated. The decision was given in favor of the affirmative.

The meeting closed with the singing of the national anthem.

THE RESURRECTION

The National Stock Company gave a splendid presentation of The Resurrection in Robertson hall last night. A large crowd were present who thoroughly appreciated the company's efforts to give an exact portrayal of the great novel of Count Tolstoi. The playing was very cleverly followed. Clara M. Cornay as Katusha appeared to great advantage. The part was eminently suited to her, especially in the 1st, 2nd and 5th acts. Horace V. Noble as Prince Dmitri was splendid. Mr. Noble is an artist who has made a great hit with Edmonton theatre-going people. W. G. Bosch, as Prince Korchenko, was excellent. Olla and Peter played their parts well. The costumes were all splendid, especially the uniforms of Prince Dmitri and Prince Korchenko. It is needless to dwell on the story of the play, as it is well known and has recently been played in Edmonton.

Mr. Robins, who is playing with the company, is an Edmonton man, having spent all last summer here. His playing has been thoroughly enjoyed. The specialties were good, especially the dancing, and the juggling. The company plays David Garrick at the Opera House to-night and in order not to conflict with the hockey match, will not commence until nine o'clock.

Ed. Nagle left this morning on a week's visit to his brother in Spokane Washington.

LOCAL.

—The telegraph service remains deranged and no press dispatches have been received in Edmonton to-day.

—The Edmonton Methodist church will hold its annual Christmas entertainment Wednesday, December 3rd.

—Until further notice the morning train on the E. Y. & P. railway will leave for Strathcona at 7:45 instead of 7:30 as heretofore.

—Major Hubbell, D.L.S., and party arrived in Edmonton yesterday from the Beaver Lake and Birch Lake districts. Major Hubbell leaves for the East shortly.

—Hockey match to-night, Edmonton vs. Strathcona, on Thistle rink. The ice is in good shape and the match is sure to be a good one.

—A couple of very pretty calendars from the Bellamy Implement Company have been left at this office. One is an excellent representation of a deer hunting scene in Muskoka.

—Invitations are out for the formal opening exercises of the Alberta College. The reception will be held in the upstairs of the new Masonic Hall on Second street. The local committee with their wives and the faculty will receive. The guests will come by the front door, leave their wraps in the lecture room down stairs. As this is a purely college function, the committee wishes all graduates, as far as possible, to wear academic costumes. The program will consist of music and addresses by representative citizens of Edmonton and Strathcona.

—The last issue of Industrial Canada is a special western number. It gives an account of the trip of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association through the west. Speaking of Edmonton it says: "Edmonton is recognized as the great northern metropolis, though there are large stretches of the finest farming lands extending still northward for more than two hundred miles, and as yet only its immediate vicinity for about sixty miles is populated. It is a rising city with 6,000 people, six banks, fine schools and churches, and good hotels. Its stores presented an excellent appearance, and prosperity was evident on all sides. Edmonton is not only the centre of a great farming district, it is the entrepot for the northwest fur trade, and to the value of nearly a million dollars being received every year. Mayor Short, assisted by several prominent citizens, drove the party through the principal streets, and a large number spent the evening in the city. A few years hence should Edmonton be visited again, it will undoubtedly be found to be a great manufacturing centre, prosperous, as it does, excellent advantages for industrial growth and commanding such an important territory."

TO LAKE SUPERIOR.

The Winnipeg Tribune has an Ottawa dispatch stating that the first section of the national transcontinental railway to be rushed through will be that from Lake Superior to Winnipeg. The Grand Trunk Pacific will build from a Lake Superior port until their line strikes the government section of the Transcontinental, which passes north of Lake Nipigon. It will, therefore, be necessary for the Grand Trunk Pacific to begin their branch at once in order that the government may be able to proceed with the construction of their part of the line to advantage. In any case, it is satisfactory to know that the work will be rushed and that a third outlet from the wheat fields to the lakes is assured at the earliest possible date. At the same time the completion of the line from Lake Superior to Winnipeg will enable the Grand Trunk to proceed with the construction of the Western section of the Transcontinental to much better advantage than if they depended on their rivals for the transport of their rails and supplies. Nipigon may be the Lake Superior port which the Grand Trunk Pacific will touch. The C. P. R. has already secured most of the port facilities at Port William, and the Canadian Northern has pretty well covered the ground at Port Arthur. Besides, Nipigon, being further north, can be reached by a shorter branch from the main line than Port Arthur or Port William.

THE EDMONTON ROUTE AGAIN

Dawson, Y. T., Nov. 20.—N. W. Craigie and Geo. Hall, Mackenzie river hunters, have discovered a new pass across the Rockies which shortens the distance to Mackenzie river over three hundred miles. The old trail to Porcupine river swung around Dawson in a great semi-circle. The new trail through the Zola pass gives a direct course to Twelve Mile river, which joins the Yukon just below Dawson. The Zola pass was even unknown to the Indians. It is much easier than the one formerly used. The Zola pass leads direct to Blackstone river, a tributary of the Pelly, which is a tributary of the Mackenzie.

HOCKEY

The coming hockey season has every promise of being a highly successful one. Last winter there was great enthusiasm displayed, this year there is bound to be more than ever. Edmonton had an excellent team last year, from present appearances this year's players will surpass them. The club is strong financially, and the managers well for its success. The players have been undergoing, and will continue to undergo, good hard training. There is no reason why Edmonton may not only redeem the laurels lost last year, but reach out in new fields, and prove herself the undisputed champion of North, Central, and South Alberta. The Calgary team is sure to be up this winter, and the Medicine Hat team has already signified its intentions of taking a trip to Edmonton. Other Southern Alberta teams might also be induced to come north. The Edmonton team will probably take a trip through Southern Alberta.

The Calgary Brewing cup, significant of the championship of Northern Alberta, and which has to be won for three consecutive years, has been won by Edmonton for two years. Edmonton people think that the final games for the cup will be played this year.

The Houston Shield, which has to be won for three years in succession by the same club, was put up last year by Thos. Houston, Edmonton. Last year the shield was won by Strathcona. Edmonton is out after it this year.

The Alberta Challenge cup, which was donated by T. A. Stephen, Edmonton, last year, represents the championship of Alberta. Edmonton defended the cup last year from Calgary's determined attempts to lift it but the Strathcona club succeeded in wresting it from Edmonton and are now champions of Alberta.

R. Secord has signified his intentions of donating a trophy for competition among Alberta hockey teams in the near future.

R. Hockley, Edmonton, has donated a cup representative of the intermediate championship of Alberta.

The club is indebted to the following gentlemen for generous donations: J. H. Morris for eight pairs of stockings and eight touques, the colors of the club; Mr. Sipple for a dozen hockey sticks, and Rev. H. A. Gray, a sum of money. The sweater for the senior team have arrived and are now on exhibition in the window of the Edmonton Clothing Company's store.

WINNIPEG MARKETS

Commercial, Nov. 25th.
Wheat.—Manitoba wheat has been quiet all week and the demand quite moderate. The approaching close of navigation effects the trade. Vessel owners are asking higher rates and there is uncertainty about getting more vessels than are already chartered. Shippers are well provided with wheat for all engagements entered into, and unless more vessels are obtained the demand for wheat at current prices will not revive and trade will come right down to December delivery basis. Prices during the last two days have been 1-2 to 3-4 under a week ago. Yesterday these were nominal at 78 3-4 for 1 northern, 76 1-2 to 2 Nor., 72 1-2 to 3 Nor., spot, and for Dec. delivery 1 northern 77 1-2 to 2 northern 74 1-2 to 3 northern, 70 1-2 to No. 4 wheat 61 1-2, feed wheat, 56c, feed No. 2 46c, all in store Fort William and Port Arthur.

Cattle.—There has been quite a lot of cattle offered this week, but as the demand has increased, the market is if anything, firmer. The increase in demand is mainly from Northwest Ontario, where there are now large numbers of horses in the lumber and the camps. These will furnish a steady demand all winter if prices do not get above par. Local feed merchants are taking a few cars every day. Local feed dealers are paying 31c to 32c for No. 2 white oats in carlots on track here, and 28c to 29c for feed grades. For farmers' loads at country points, prices are averaging 25c.

Horses.—Malting grades are bringing 36c to 37c per bushel in carlots on track here, and feed grades 33 to 34c. Farmers are getting about 28c at country points.

We know that many of the good people about us are intending patronizing us for Xmas photos—many have already told us.

Just Suppose.

(and this is improbable, though possible) that the finishing of the new studio is further delayed, and we find that, by the time we are all settled and ready to take those photos for you, there would be insufficient time to turn the work out and DO IT PROPERLY, what are you going to do?

Let Us Solve the Problem.

We are getting a number of neat cards printed, on which appears a note—a promissory note in fact—by signing your name to which you agree to forward your photo as soon as finished. Also there appears the usual Xmas greeting, and there's the point. You wish your friends the best of cheer at Christmas, don't you? The very novelty of the thing will make that friend smile, the resultant satisfaction will make that smile hold, and the realization will cement it there. Every little helps, you know.

Follow this suggestion and you will be pleased, your friends will be delighted, and we shall be happy too, as everything will be lovely.

You can get the cards at the studio in good time. Await announcement of opening.
